OFFICIAL CATALOGUE OF PERIODICALS PUBLISHED IN CHINA

Ch'uan-kuo Ch'i-k'an Mu-lu (Catalogue of Chinese Periodicals), published by Bureau of Books and Periodicals, Directorate-General of Publications, Central People's Government, Aug 1953

INTRODUCTION

This catalogue lists periodicals published in China by public and private organizations as of April 1951. It is limited to periodicals published at intervals of 3 days or more. A total of 455 items is included, 134 items being omitted.

For statistical purposes, the periodicals are divided into the following 16 categories: general current events, scholarly publications, finance and economics, education, literature and art, scientific and technical, medicine and hygiene, popular, youth, women, children, illustrated news, language, minorities, religion, and miscellaneous. The category "general current events" includes periodicals on general current events and government and international affairs. The category "popular" includes those periodicals addressed to workers and peasants with an elementary-school education; and publications for the guidance of the workers' movement. The category "children" includes periodicals addressed to students in elementary or lower middle schools.

Within each category, publications with national circulation are listed first; listed next are local periodicals in the following order: North China, Northeast, East China, Central-South China, Southwest, and Northwest.

All information in the catalogue is based on the most recent number received. Since some publishers are not prompt in sending copies, the most recent number received may not actually be the most recently published. The editor, publisher, or price of some periodicals may have changed since publication of this catalogue. Any necessary revisions will be made in future issues of this catalogue.

This catalogue is for reference only and does not recommend any periodicals.

This catalogue is published by the Bureau of Books and Periodicals, Publications Administration, Central People's Government, August 1951.
